

“Back of My Mind” Lyric Sheet

Written by Debbie Gibson

I hear music

I see stars that softly beckon me

I feel restless, restless as I'll ever be

Cuz you're here in my thoughts every moment

And I act like our friendship is fine

But if you only knew

What's going on in the back of my mind

We've held magic

That most people never ever know

And I tremble everytime my heart bids you to go

You've awakened me from a silence

It is myself that I find

But if you only knew

What's going on in the back of my mind

Your arms are so strong and they feel so perfect around my waist

Your hands so tender as they touch my face

What is this feeling that I'm feeling
And tell me has it touched you to

If you only knew

Ohh – Ohh Ohh Oh Ohhhh Oh

Yeah Yeah Yeah

All the things I've learned as a little girl
I questioned for the very first time
Cuz with you its oh such a different world
Where love is not a sin or a crime

If you only knew

If you only knew

If you only knew what's going on in the back of my mind
